

2011 Lotus in the Park • Saturday, September 24 / Free

Presented by Dr. Lisa Baker DDS; sponsored by BEAD, the Bloomington Entertainment & Arts District

	BTL Bloomingfoods / Tree of Life Stage	IU Global Education Pavilion	Art Camp
Noon	Hudsucker Posse Hula hoop dancing Noon-12:30		Throughout the Day
:15		Lotus Dickey Song Workshop
:30			T.C. Steele Murals
:45
1:00 pm	Bulgarika Bulgarian folk music 1:15-2:00	12:30-1:15	World handcrafts with the Mathers Museum of World Cultures
:15
:30			Fish flags, communal tapestry, paper weaving
:45
2:00 pm		Orchid Ensemble Classical Chinese music traditions 2:00-2:45	Hoop Dancing with the Hudsucker Posse (Some hoops provided, or bring your own)
:15
:30
:45	Eilen Jewell Americanana 2:45-3:30
3:00 pm		Bernard Woma Ghanaian percussion 3:30-4:15
:15
:30
:45
4:00 pm	Joaquin Diaz Dominican merengue 4:15-5:00
:15
:30
:45
5:00 pm

Lotus in the Park Art Camp sponsored by
T.C Steele Historic Site, ISU–The May Agency, and the Mathers
Museum of World Cultures

IU Global Education Pavilion sponsored by Center for the Study of Global Change, Office of the Provost,
and SPEA (School of Public and Environmental Affairs)

Schedule subject to change. Current info at www.lotusfest.org
Copyright © Lotus Education & Arts Foundation, Inc.
August 2011